CONROY ROSS PARTNERS ACQUIRES TORONTO-BASED FUNNEL SEARCH GROUP

CONROY ROSS PARTNERS NOW INCLUDES OFFICES IN CALGARY, EDMONTON, REGINA AND TORONTO, WITH A STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP SERVING ATLANTIC CANADA.

August 14, 2013 Calgary, Alberta - Conroy Ross Partners is a search and consulting firm with offices across Western Canada. The recent acquisition of Funnel Search Group in Toronto extends the firm's national reach in the East, providing access to an enhanced network of contacts and candidates.

"It was an easy decision for us to acquire Funnel Search Group," said Mike Bacchus, CEO and Partner at Conroy Ross Partners, "There is a long history between our firms, and with that comes confidence - we know the quality of the work they provide to their clients." Bacchus continued, "Our organizations share a commitment to delivering proven results, and we are both highly invested in the relationships we build with our clients. It's a great fit, not only for our two companies, but for our clients too. The acquisition strengthens our presence across the country and allows us to deepen our local market knowledge and networks."

Jim Botrie, Managing Partner of Funnel Search Group, stated, "We are more than excited to join the Conroy Ross team. This is a wonderful opportunity for both of our firms to service the needs of our clients - we look forward to combining both our experience and expertise, while continuing to focus on customer service, flexibility and innovation."

While the company continues to grow, the culture at Conroy Ross Partners remains firmly rooted in a commitment to professionalism and exceptional customer service. The team is well known for their ability to deliver business results through their full suite of services: Executive and Professional Search, Interim Management Solutions, and Consulting.

The transition of Funnel Search Group over to the Conroy Ross Partners brand is expected to be complete by December 2013.
